Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 11 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rain pushing east.

Today:
Mostly cloudy with outbreaks of rain, heavy at times in the west. However, brighter spells at first in the east, and drier, brighter conditions developing in the west later in the day. Breezy, fresh to strong winds around the coast.

Tonight:
Rain for a time over the Northern Isles, but mainly dry with clearing skies and a few mist and fog patches around dawn. Winds falling light.

Thursday:
A bright start with sunny spells. A scattering of showers developing, these becoming heavier and more widespread in the west later. Winds also strengthening, gales around the west coast.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Cloudy in the west on Friday with showers, brighter with fewer showers in the east. Bright with scattered showers on Saturday. Rain possibly pushing in from the south on Sunday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.